Centerville is proud of the music programs it provides its' young people. The high school marching band – The Centerville Jazz – has brought national acclaim to this area with its' unique style and demonstrated excellence. All funding for the Jazz band and all Centerville high school band programs is provided through fundraisers and student participation fees. Soaring Sounds is one of these fundraisers. Each year a professionally produced souvenir program is produced and sold at Soaring Sounds featuring information about the participating Corps PLUS advertisements from supporters. The souvenir program is one of the biggest revenue generators on the day of the show.
